ASSAULT ON WOMAN

SERIOUS ALLEGATION AGAINST INDIAN

INSULT TO INJURY

Serious allegations were made against an Indian guard, Gurdu Singh, this morning at the Criminal Sessions before Mr. Justice J. R. Wood. The charge against the accused was that he had forcibly raped a Chinese woman, named Chan Mui-sau, in a house near Felix Villa on the morning of August 31.

The accused was defended by Mr. Leo d'Almeida, junr., instructed by Mr. A. E. Hall. The case for the prosecution was conducted by Mr. H. K. Holmes, Crown Solicitor.

Before the facts of the case were outlined, His Lordship told the jury that they would have to visit the scene of the alleged crime in order that they would know the location better.

A Defenceless Woman
Outlining the case for the prosecution, Mr. Holmes said that Chan Mui-sau was a married woman. She lived in the house with her three children—two daughters aged 13 and 5 respectively and a son, 6 years of age. Her husband was away from home on the day in question.

The house had a flat roof, with a garage at the back. This latter building was on a level with the first floor of the house. The roof of the garage was joined to the house. The woman slept in a room on the first floor. Her three children occupied another room, and a male servant slept in the third room on that flat.

Her husband employed three Indian guards from the Police to watch the house. On the night in question, the woman retired at about 11.30 p.m. It was her habit to keep the lights burning the whole night.

Access from the Roof
All the doors, which would give access to the house were locked that night and the theory was given out that the accused must have gained entrance to her room through the roof. The Indian guards had their quarters in the garage, and it would be quite an easy matter for anyone to gain the roof of the house from the roof of the garage.

Evidence would be called to show that the accused was on duty from 2 to 6 a.m. on the morning of August 31. It was presumed that he went on the roof of the house, on which was a dome. Inside that dome was a flight of stairs which led to the first floor of the house.

Fearful Experience
The woman's bedroom door was opened, and she would say that she was suddenly awakened from her sleep by the accused, who stood at her bedside with his rifle slung across his back. The Indian was then dressed in short drawers and a singlet. He held her throat with one hand, and with the other hand, he closed her mouth to prevent her from shouting.

The allegation went on that the Indian then unstrung his rifle, with which he placed across the woman's throat so as to keep her down to the bed. He then committed the crime alleged.

Wanted 10 Gold Coins
He was in the woman's room for half an hour, after which he demanded to be paid in ten gold coins. The woman said that she kept no gold coins in the house. The accused, it was further alleged, held the woman again by the throat and made her accompany him down stairs. At the foot of the staircase, he patted the woman on the cheeks and told her to marry him. He then asked the woman to get the key of the door, which she did, and let him out.

After the Indian had left, the woman woke up her houseboy and told him what had happened. The houseboy would say that he noticed marks around the woman's throat. She was very agitated and vomited several times.

Accused Requests Transfer
Another Indian guard went on duty at 6 a.m. to relieve the accused, but he could not find the accused anywhere near the premises. The next time, he saw the accused again was at the Guards' Office at Police Headquarters, where the accused went to make a report.

The accused reported to Sub-Inspector Fraser that he had some trouble and asked for a transfer. He was, however, detained. In the meantime, Sub-Inspector Fraser sent out Sgt. Walsh to the woman's house to make investigations. On arrival there, Sgt. Walsh received a report "on the woman."

The jury and his Lordship then visited the house where the alleged crime was said to have been committed. When the case was resumed at 2.15 this afternoon, evidence was called. The case is proceeding.

NANNING BOMBED BY HOUSE OF COMMONS

CANTONESE

YAMEN DESTROYED

FALL OF HENGCHOW EXPECTED
VERY SHORTLY

"NOTHING LEFT TO FIGHT"

Wuchow, Yesterday.
Nanning is stated to have been bombed by Cantonese aviators operating against the Kwangsi rebels. The district magistrate's yamen is believed to have been destroyed.

The Cantonese loyalists, who came up from Kwangtung, have taken Hengchow, which is only 75 miles from Nanning, the fall of which is expected now.

General Lui Woon-yim (recently appointed Civil Governor of Kwangsi) returned yesterday from Kwai-ping, where he went to confer with General Yeung Tang-fai (57th Division) who sided with the Cantonese against the rebels who happened to be natives of his own province, Kwangsi.

Deposed Rebel
Wong Kuen, who was appointed commander of the 15th Division (in succession to the deposed rebel, General Li Ming-shui, who started the rebellion to create a diversion for the Ironsides), was also at the conference.

This council-of-war concerned the return of the Cantonese troops "at the front" back to Canton, since the rebels have been dispersed and there is nothing left to fighting.—An Occasional Correspondent.

CHIANG'S DOWNFALL

Predicted As Imminent By Enemies

A Royal Naval communique issued this morning reads: "Shanghai continues to report warlike operations against Nanking, the seat of the National Government, from different parts of the country."

Anti-Nanking propaganda is very strong and prophecies concerning Marshal Chiang Kai-shek's imminent downfall are being made to accomplish this."

TROOPS ARRIVE

TO SUPPRESS REMNANTS OF KWANGSI REBELS

SITUATION QUIET

Wuchow, Saturday.
During the week, about 4,000 troops have arrived here from Kwangtung and elsewhere, for service to support the National Government against the remnants of the Kwangsi rebels and, if necessary, the Ironsides. The new arrivals have been sent up the West River for duty.

The situation here remains normal.—British Naval Wireless.

Disorder Quelled
Shanghai, Saturday.
It is stated from Wuhu that loyalist troops at Wuhu quelled the disturbances and some of the mutineers, who only numbered 500, were disarmed, and others were driven back from the town.

British women and children who left by gunboats have returned to their homes.—Reuter.

ASSEMBLES NEXT WEEK TO FACE HEAVY TASKS

SNOWDEN AS LOCUM TENENS

London, Yesterday.
Parliament reassembles on Tuesday week when, in the absence of the Prime Minister, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Philip Snowden, will act as leader of the House of Commons. The Prime Minister will arrive a few days after the House meets.

As the Parliamentary sittings beginning on October 29 are a continuation of the session begun last July, both Houses will resume the tasks interrupted by the summer vacation without any ceremonial formalities.

Many domestic measures, including the Widows' Pensions Bill, and the mining industry bill, will be debated before Christmas, and there will be discussions in the House of Commons on several important items of foreign policy, including the resumption of full diplomatic relations with the Russian Government, disarmament policy, reparations, and the optional clause.—British Wireless Service.

NON-STOP FLIGHT

PILOTS HOPE TO REACH
CAPETOWN IN 50 HOURS

LONDON TO SOUTH AFRICA

London, Yesterday.
The British attempt upon the non-stop flight record is to be undertaken next month by a Royal Air Force Fairey Napier monoplane, in which it is hoped to fly 6,000 miles from Great Britain to South Africa.

Squadron-Leader Jones Williams and Flight-Lieutenant Jenkins, who flew a non-stop flight in 1913 same plane to India last April, will again be the pilots.

The machine has recently been modified and will now carry four tons of petrol. It is hoped that Capetown will be reached in 50 hours.—British Wireless Service.

ERUPTION TERRORS

REFUGEES FLEE FROM FRENCH
DANGER ZONE

LURID COLUMN OF ASHES

Port de France, Yesterday.
Memories of the eruption of Montpelé in 1902, when the town of St. Pierre was wiped out and the whole 20,000 inhabitants killed, are haunting refugees under orders to evacuate the entire zone in consequence of the most violent recurrence of the eruption for many years. A lurid column of smoke and ashes has risen 4,000 feet high, and heavy landslides have occurred.—Reuter.

BERLIN DISTURBED

POLITICAL SITUATION AND YOUNG PLAN

POLICE INTERVENTION

Berlin, Yesterday.
Police intervention was necessary in several parts of the capital to-day to cool the ardour of political demonstrators. Attention is drawn to the disturbing element of the political situation in the shape of a Nationalist petition organised throughout the country to demand a plebiscite on the Young Plan. Participants in Nationalist meetings endeavoured to form processions, contrary to the official prohibition but prompt police action prevented serious disorder.—Reuter.

PARIS ELECTIONS

SMALL GAIN BY RADICAL
SOCIALISTS

Paris, Yesterday.
The third annual elections for one-third of the Senate are being held to-day. Eighty-one results have so far been announced. The Radical Socialists have gained seven, the Independent Radicals four.—Reuter.

Final Results
Paris, Yesterday.
The final results show that the Republicans are unchanged. The Left Republicans lost seven seats, of which one went to the Socialists. The remaining six were distributed between the Radical-Republicans and Radical Socialists.

Notable defeats include the Minister of Pensions and Interior, Messieurs Leon Blum and Francis Lamare.—Reuter.

MURDER OF JUNK

OWNER

"LET HIM DROWN"

CALLOUS CRIME ALLEGED AGAINST CHINESE

PRISONER SMILES IN COURT

Events on a fishing boat in Mira Bay, in the N.E. of the New Territory, on August 7, 1929, after which the craft was washed ashore and holed in the disastrous typhoon, were related in a murder trial to-day at the opening of the October Criminal Session, in the Supreme Court, before the Chief Justice (Sir Henry Gollan, C.B.E.) and a jury.

Mr. Somerset Fitzroy (Assistant Attorney General) appeared for the Crown. Prisoner, Chau Koon-sing, was defended by Mr. C. G. Alabaster, O.B.E., K.C. (instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist).

No Objections!
When informed that he should do if he objected to any of the jury, prisoner, who had pleaded "not guilty," smilingly replied "I have no objections." Shortly afterwards, he declared "It is immaterial to me; I leave it entirely in his Lordship's hands."

Deceased, Chau Koon-tse, was the owner of the junk. Prisoner had worked for him a few months to help with the junk. Both men lived on Ping Chau Island, in Mira Bay and the boat formed part of a fair sized fishing fleet.

Borrowed a Boy
At dawn on August 7, deceased went down to the beach. After looking around and failing to find

1929 rainfall . . . 68.03 inches

Average 79.69 inches

Deficit 11.66 inches

prisoner, said Mr. Fitzroy in his opening speech, deceased borrowed a boy from another boat and put off. Prisoner caught up a little later and boarded the junk from another boat on which he had taken passage from the island.

A fair to fresh breeze was blowing. The morning meal had been cooked by the borrowed boy and, while it was being eaten, the Crown alleged, deceased admonished prisoner for being late.

Smoke of Opium
After the meal deceased had a smoke of opium and he then sat on the port side, at the stern, with his feet "outboard."

Nobody actually saw what happened, but, between 8 a.m. and 9 a.m., the boy (who was holding the tiller) heard a splash. He turned round and saw deceased in the water with his arms up.

It was common knowledge to the boy and on the island that deceased could not swim. According to the boy, prisoner said at the time "I pushed him in; let him drown; don't save him."

Body Not Recovered
Another boat, to which the boy crossed, made a futile attempt subsequently. A belated report was made to the Police. Prisoner swam from the island to a boat, and crossed into Chinese territory, but returned to Hong Kong via Talpo, and was arrested. Deceased had not been seen since and his body has not been recovered.

Formal evidence as to photographs was given by the Police expert, acting Inspector A. E. Vincent. Mr. R. J. Nunn, (Boarding Officer of the Harbour Office and master of the Government tug "Kau Sing") gave evidence as to the position being well within the waters of the Colony.

Li Fat, the "borrowed boy," who is 15 according to Chinese reckoning, was then called and the case is proceeding.

COSMOPOLITAN DOCK THEFT

At the Kowloon Magistracy to-day, a Chinese boy appeared on a charge of stealing a number of brass rods, rings, etc., from the motor boat "Dora," in the Cosmopolitan Dock.

Sergeant Brown stated that he did not lay so much emphasis on the value of the brass fittings as on the damage done through the theft. The Magistrate ordered the lad to receive a dozen strokes with the cane.

In view of the re-opening of the Siberian route via Vladivostok, it has been decided to discontinue closing air-mails via Karachi.

OFFICIAL SALARIES

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT
BENDS TO OPPOSITION

REVOCATION DECIDED

Tokyo, Yesterday.
It is learned from a reliable source that owing to unexpectedly vehement opposition throughout the country the Government has virtually decided to revoke the decision to cut the salaries of officials by 10 per cent.

All Cabinet members who are at present absent from Tokyo have been hurriedly recalled for the purpose of formally deciding upon the revocation on October 22.—Reuter.

Opium Divided
Tokyo, To-day.

While general satisfaction is expressed at the Government's intention to revoke its decision to cut the salaries of officials, opinion is divided between praising the Premier's wisdom in bowing before public opinion and censuring him for shillyshallying.

The majority praise his courage in acknowledging his mistake, but the anti-Government elements are attempting to make political capital out of the Government's chopping and changing. They demand the resignation of the Ministry, or, at least, of the Finance Minister who initiated the unpopular plan to reduce salaries in order to show a sense of responsibility.

These demands, however, are not taken seriously. Neither the Government nor the Finance Minister is likely to heed them unless there are unexpected developments.—Reuter.

FOND OF THE GERMANS

London, Yesterday.
Lord Methuen, the Veteran British Field Marshal, presiding yesterday at the British Legion Conference gave his reasons for being strongly in favour of pilgrimages to the battlefields. Knowledge of the people of other nations, he said, would conduce to peace more than anything else. When he was Military Attache in Berlin, he was as fond of the Germans as he was of the English people, and in time of sorrow he received from them sympathy which he would never forget.—British Wireless Service.

TROOPS IN OCCUPATION

Some damage has been caused to foreigners' houses in the Lower Yangtze Treaty port of Wuhu by bullets fired during the mutiny of anti-Government troops and their suppression by Northern loyalists. The situation is normal again, states a Royal Naval Wireless message issued to-day.

The Government troops are at present in occupation and are pursuing the rebels into the country, further trouble from the latter being considered unlikely.

Having taken part in the Wanhsien episode as a unit in the Royal Navy, the British merchant vessel "Kiawo" has had the misfortune to be pirated.

She belongs to the Indo-China S.N. Co., Ltd. (Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd.) and was restored to her owners by the Senior Service recently, after having been in commission for about two years.

Held By Pirates
As she belongs to the Upper Yangtze River run, the "Kiawo" left Chungking (the highest Treaty port, more than 1,400 miles from the sea) as usual, on October 18.

"She was then held up by pirates," states a Royal Naval communique issued this morning. "The pirates looted the cabins and removed $6,000. They then left the ship. No European passenger was on board."

It has been the custom to carry a native guard on Yangtze steamers of late but it is not stated whether the "Kiawo" had such protection.

MARINE COURT

MORE FINED FOR BOARDING
VESSELS UNLAWFULLY

SIX CAUGHT YESTERDAY

A determined effort is being made by the local authorities to stop the practise of boarding-house and ship-runners, who board vessels arriving in the Colony without lawful permission. Only last week Chief Preventive Officer Clarke asked the Marine Magistrate to take a serious view of the offence, and a Chinese runner was fined $30.

Ball Estreated
This morning six ship runners appeared before Mr. T. W. H. Rosegood at the Marine Court charged with boarding the s.s. "Hai Ning" while she was underway in the harbour. The six defendants failed to appear in Court, and his bail of $20 was estreated.

The accused pleaded that they had boarded the vessel after she had made fast to the Douglas wharf. They had followed some coolies, and had walked up the gangway.

Their statement was taken as a plea of guilt.

C.P.O. Clarke said that it was impossible for the defendants to have boarded the "Hai Ning" after she had made fast to the wharf, as Revenue Officer Merriman who had boarded the vessel from his motorboat, found them already aboard. The "Hai Ning" then was still manoeuvring about the wharf. The only explanation he could offer of the situation, was that the defendants had boarded the vessel from sampans.

Fines of $15 were imposed on each.

Captain Stewart, master of the s.s. "Hai Ning" appeared in Court as complainant.

More than 130 ounces of opium were seized by members of the Greater Shanghai Bureau of Public Safety from a Chinese who had landed at Pootung from a junk. He tried to escape and to throw the drug away but was arrested and the opium recovered. Another man was found in possession of 180 ounces. Both were taken to the Bureau.

GENTLEMAN CROOK

PLAUSIBLE ROGUE VISITS HONG KONG

"DAPPER DAN"

A "gentleman crook" has made his appearance in the Colony. Below we publish an exposure of his methods, written by a special staff writer with a view to curbing his activities.

Foreign shop-keepers have been specially singled out by this "Dapper Dan" as his victims, and these are advised to be constantly on their guard against the wiles of this plausible thief.

He is a young Chinese of about 25 years of age, possessing a refined mode of address and a smart appearance which are disarming, and place him above suspicion.

The above are his chief assets in crime, which, coupled with cool audacity, have so far enabled him successfully to put through his coups, two of which have come to the notice of the "China Mail."

Obviously well-educated, he speaks both English and French, well, and fashionably dressed in European clothes, this "shark" has two different methods of operation which, although not original, (in fact, one comes under the category of "petty thieving"), are seldom attempted here on foreign shops, and certainly never with such cool daring and neatness of execution.

Clever Tricks

These tricks, cleverly played, would doubtless have proved lucrative to this individual, with a fairly big "field" to work all on his own, if only his luck held.

It is his misfortune that the "China Mail" is in a position to put a spoke in his wheel so soon!

True, his two known successful coups did not net him large sums of money, (about $40, all told), but it can easily be imagined that, even if he "works" only one shop per day, this "shark customer" can make quite a comfortable income monthly.

From information gathered by the "China Mail," this crook first made his appearance in a Greek shop in town last Wednesday, just before tiffin time.

He spoke English to the shop-keeper and bargained for a small watch and a cigarette case which he finally agreed to buy for $30.

Left His Cheque Book

After the things had been wrapped up he suddenly discovered that he had insufficient cash on him to pay for them, and to create an atmosphere of affluence, mentioned also that he had left his cheque book in the safe at the office.

This was very annoying, he proceeded, because he wanted the things for presents to a friend and his wife, who were leaving the Colony and were due to sail within an hour.

He had just enough time to meet his friends to have tiffin together before going on board, and as he was to be the host at luncheon, he required all the ready cash he had on him.

The shop-keeper was sympathetic. "Gross Carelessness"

The crook then said that, of course, he had only himself to blame for being so grossly careless as to come out without sufficient funds, but the fact was that he had been particularly busy at the office that morning and had to tear himself away with barely sufficient time to buy the presents and keep the appointment with his friends.

Then, when he noticed that the Greek was about to "bite," the girl one helped him to make up his mind by mentioning casually that he was "Mr. Chan" of a well-known Chinese bank in the city's banking centre.

The Greek's Chinese assistant unwittingly assisted the crook by telling his employer that the name was known to him as that of the manager of the bank mentioned.

The crook smiled at the assistant and clearly showed his pleasure at the latter's display of intelligence!

Strictly Business

The Greek was reassured and he decided that, here was a customer who should not be lost even if it meant breaking his own strict business principle.

He would do it for once. It would be worth his while to cultivate the custom of a big banker.

Accordingly, he told "Mr. Chan" that although it was not his practice to give credit, he could appreciate that it was possible for a busy banker, occasionally to find himself in such an awkward situation.

Therefore, he was prepared to oblige to the extent of allowing the "banker" to take the watch and cigarette case away and meet his friends on the condition that they would be paid for that afternoon.

So Many Rogues!

The pseudo-banker said he was not surprised that the Greek should be so careful in his dealings.

He complimented him on his precaution, which was a wise one, because there was no knowing these days when one was being duped!

He deeply appreciated the trust reposed in him by the Greek, which he regarded as a fine compliment to his integrity. He was profoundly grateful for the special favour extended to him, and thanking the Greek heartily, promised to recommend the shop to his friends.

Yes, the arrangement suggested by the Greek was quite suitable to him, and he would sign an I.O.U. for the $30.

"Mr. Chan's" Exit

The I.O.U. was quickly made out in a fine hand with a very flourishing signature, which is just decipherable as "Chan." The initial could not be made out. Handing the I.O.U. over, the "banker" pocketed the watch and cigarette case, both in presentation boxes and neatly done up in white paper, and, in taking his leave told the Greek that he expected to be back at the office at 3 p.m., and if the Greek sent his assistant at that time he would get his money. He again expressed his thanks for the favour, and departed.

The Greek's assistant presented himself at the bank at 3 o'clock and inquired if the manager had returned.

"Yes, Mr. Chan is in," he was told. He stated his business and was shown into the manager's office.

Immediately on entering the shop assistant realised that the Mr. Chan in the room was not the man who had been to the shop. Confused, he asked if there was another Mr. Chan in the bank.

I.O.U. Repudiated

"No, I am the only one," the manager replied, and inquired what his business was.

The shop assistant explained and produced the I.O.U., which, of course, Mr. Chan repudiated.

He had never been to the Greek shop, he said, and the signature on the I.O.U. was certainly not his.

The assistant returned to the shop and broke the news to the Greek, who is now a sad but wiser man, whose faith in his fellows is no more.

"Dapper Dan's" second coup was successfully put through on Friday afternoon in a well-known foreign bookshop in a busy thoroughfare in town.

Soon after 2 p.m., almost immediately after the proprietor had reopened his shop after tiffin, a well-dressed young Chinese entered. He ignored the Chinese "boys" inquiry, and proceeded to study closely the titles of the books on the shelves around the walls of the shop and on the centre table.

He went right down to the end of the shop to the proprietor's desk. Here he was greeted in English by the proprietor, who inquired what he wanted.

The Chinese replied in good French that he was looking for text books and essays written in that language.

A French Critic

Many different volumes were produced and the customer examined them closely. He soon became engrossed in one book from which he read passages and commented intelligently on them in French.

Presently he put that volume aside, intimating that he wanted it, and turned his attention to another. In this way he dallied in the shop for half an hour, by which time he had selected three books.

All this time he had remained near the proprietor's desk at which the latter was sitting.

At 2.30 p.m., the proprietor sent his "boy" to the Post Office to get the European mails, and remained alone in the shop with the customer, who gave the title of a volume which he particularly wanted to secure.

Hunt For A Book

The proprietor thought he had one copy, but could not "place" it off-hand. If the customer could spare a little time he would hunt for it. Just then an English lady, apparently a visitor to the Colony, entered the shop. She bought a book and tendered a new Bank of England $1 note in payment.

The proprietor accepted the note, and going to his desk left it there under a paper weight.

Then he got change and took it to the lady who was waiting near the door.

He could not have had his back turned to the Chinese for more than half a minute whilst he bowed the lady out of the shop.

Turning back, the proprietor saw the Chinese approaching him with the three books he had selected in his hand. Handing these to the proprietor, he told him he could not stay longer because he had an appointment, so he would call another day for the book he wanted.

But if the proprietor would wrap up those three books he would pay for them and take them with him. As he spoke, the young man pulled out his wallet. The proprietor proceeded to wrap the books first, and whilst waiting the Chinese stood at the shop door examining the show window.

Suddenly he exclaimed that he thought he had seen the book he wanted at the far end of the window and stepped out into the street, apparently to get a better view.

That was the last that the bookseller saw of his customer! When he looked in the direction of the window through which he could see the street, the Chinese was not outside!

A Cultured Man

Even then the bookseller did not suspect the man of being a thief. His appearance and speech stamped him as a cultured and trustworthy man. Besides, did he not only half a minute ago see him stand there near the door with his wallet in hand waiting to pay for the books which he (the bookseller) was wrapping?

Perhaps the man had discovered that he had no small notes on him, and had gone round the corner to get change. No doubt he would be back soon. Well, he would wait for him.

Another Shock

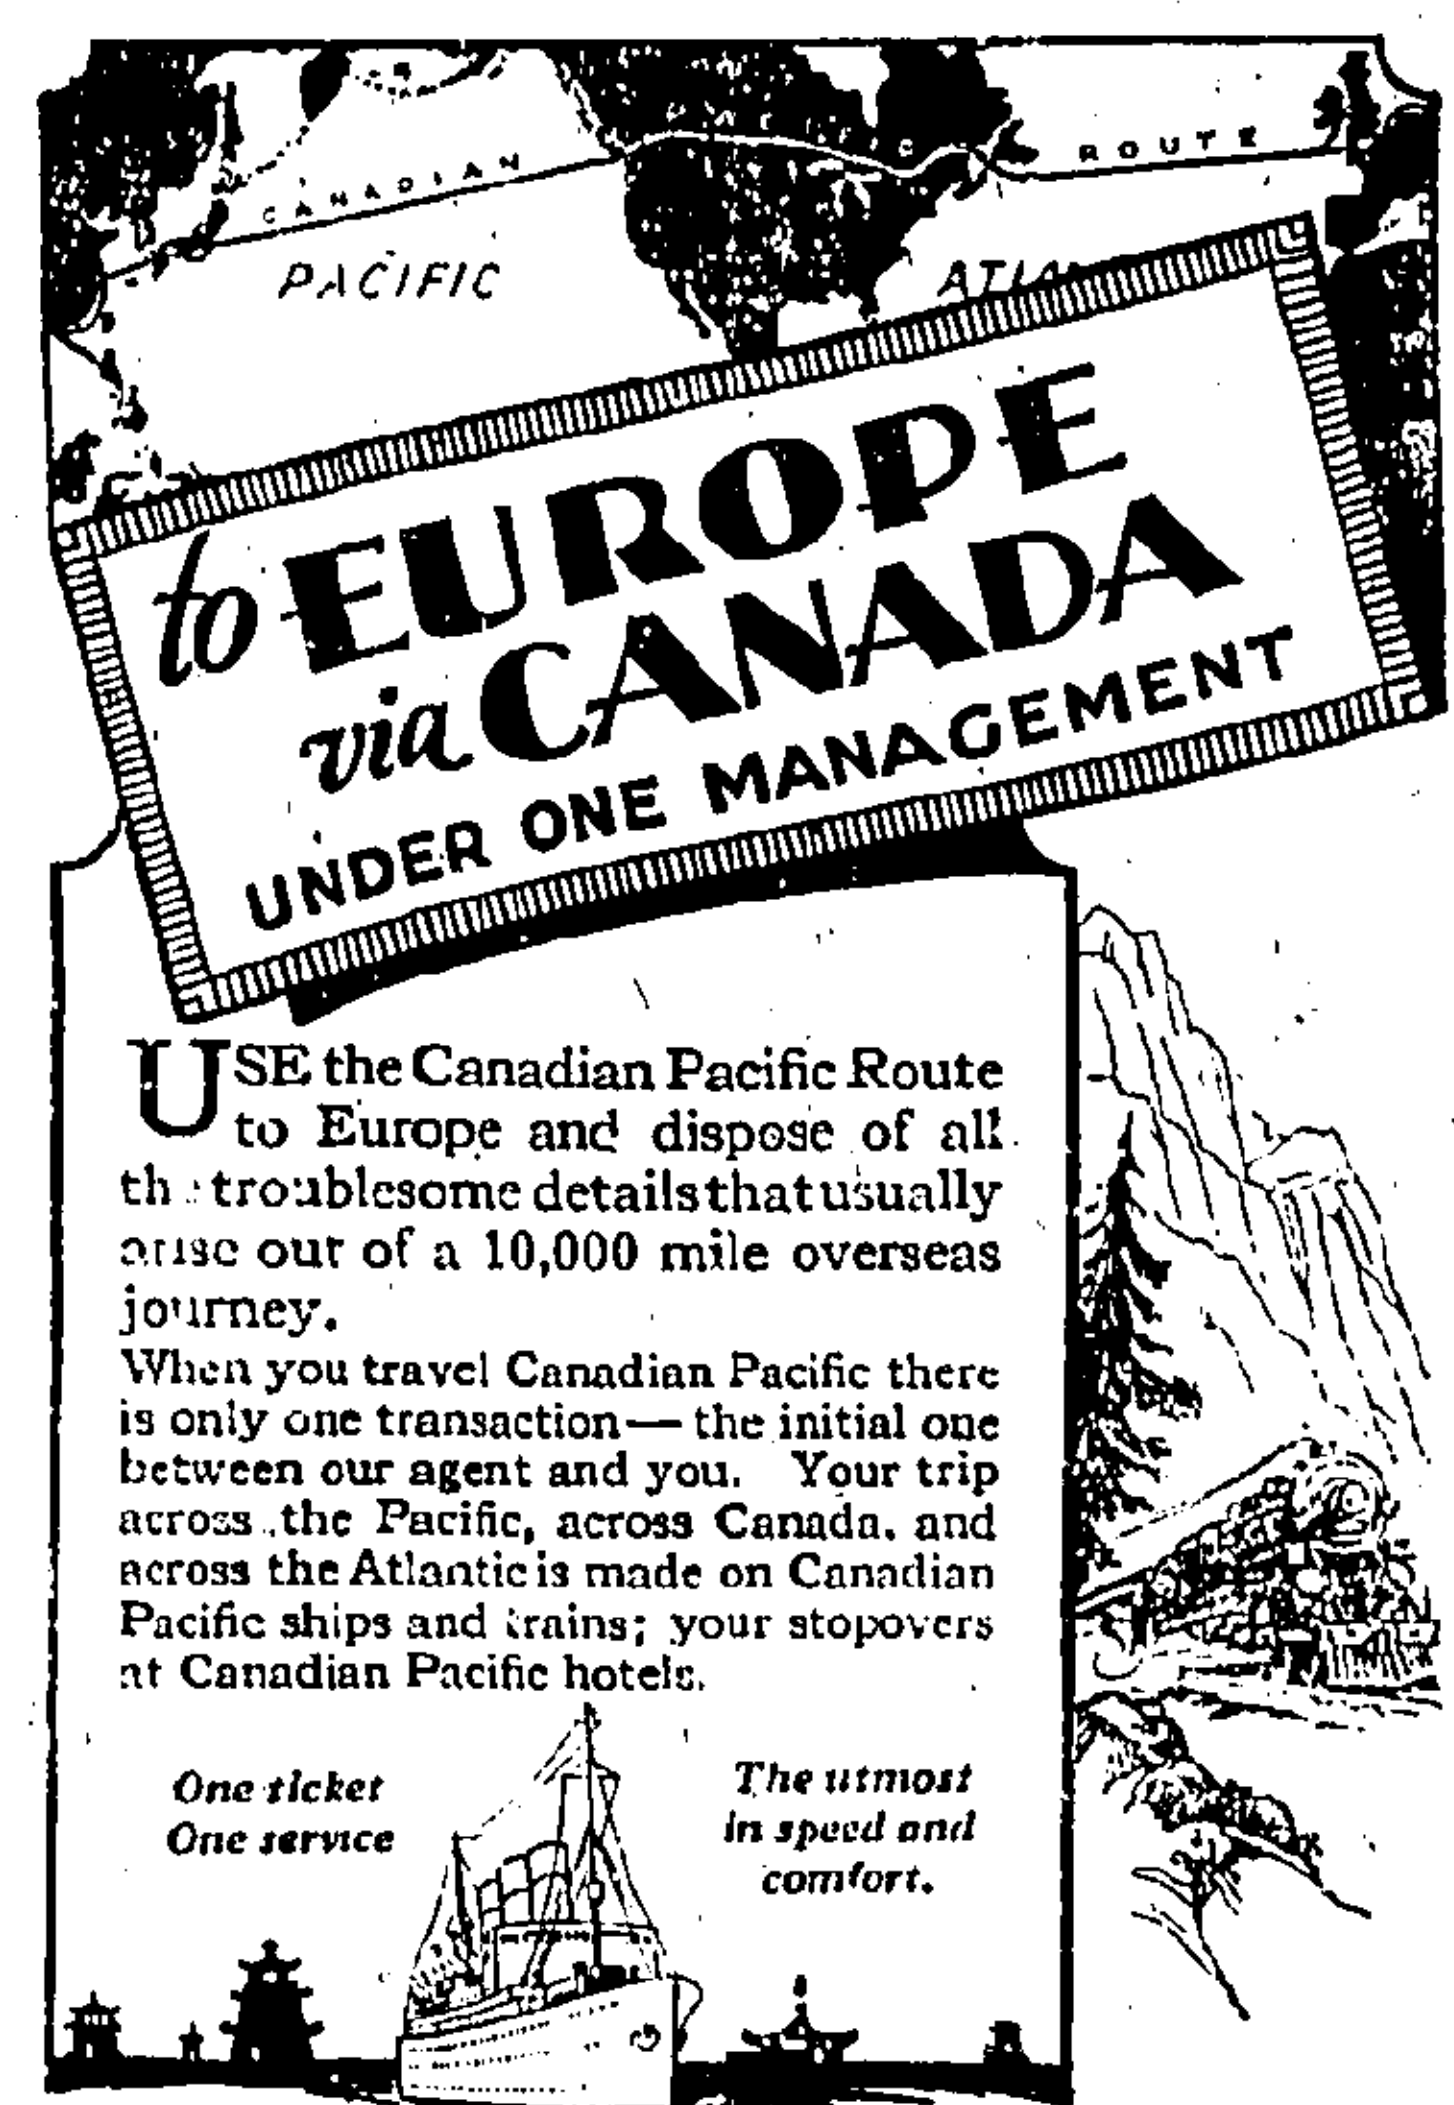

Setting the parcel of books down on the centre table, the bookseller proceeded to his desk to sit down. As he looked down on his desk, however, he received a shock.

The paper weight was in the same position, but the $1 note was not under it! Then came the realisation that his "immaculate visitor" was a thief; but it was too late!

During the brief time that the bookseller had been walking to the door with the lady, the Chinese, who was the only other person in the shop, must have slipped quietly up to the desk and helped himself to the note. Then, with cool audacity, he had kept the bookseller away from his desk by giving him the three books to wrap, and in the most natural manner imaginable had edged towards the door without arousing suspicion and made a neat "get-away" leaving behind him another sad but wiser shop-keeper!

That young fellow has brains and nerves worthy of a better cause, and although his "tricks" are not new, they were played with an individual finesse which showed a keen insight into human credulity. In his case, appearance certainly makes the man!

Mention was made before the Kowloon Magistrate, on Saturday, of the case in which Leung Chau is charged with the theft of $270 in money, two gold finger rings, and three gold buttons from a dwelling at 21 Temple Street, belonging to a married Chinese woman living at 203 Portland Street. His Worship fixed hearing for 2.15 p.m. on October 23, when Mr. E. S. C. Brookes will appear for the defence.

LOVERS' RIFT

GIRL THROWS STONE AT SWEETHEART

AIM TOO GOOD

That it was a sweetheart affair was the humorous remark passed by Divisional Inspector R. H. E. Marks in a case in which a Chinese girl was charged with hurting her "sweetie" by throwing a stone at him outside the Kowloon Court-house following a request by her for an interview on Friday with the Chief Clerk (Mr. D. Ogilvie) to whom she could unfold her grievances. But the Chief Clerk was too busy and told her to wait. Instead, she went out and hurt her "man," so he had to go to the Kowloon Hospital to have the wound dressed.

T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistrate on Saturday, and, as usual, the woman had first say. She admitted that she had lent $70 to the man, and when she pressed him for its return, he slapped her, so she indignantly picked up a stone and threw it at him from close range, hitting him on his jaw bone.

The complainant told the Magistrate that the woman did not like him very much, but she was always talking about a "nice looking face Chinese man."

Inspector Marks interposed to ask for a 48 hours' remand. He said that on Monday they could both be sent to Mr. Ogilvie to settle their "love affair."

It was no use letting the whole Court know what it was about because it was "family trouble."—A remand was granted.

This morning both parties were bound over to keep the peace.

THEFT FROM SHIP

WARNING TO A MARINE
HAWKER
PRISON FOR SELLER

Charged with the possession of a brass grease pump, suspected of being stolen, and failing to give a satisfactory account of its possession, two Chinese were at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday each sentenced to three weeks' hard labour by Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith.

Det. Sergt. P. W. Fowle appeared for the prosecution.
It was stated that the first accused worked on a Dutch vessel as an odd-job coolie and he took the pump as he saw it lying unclaimed on the deck. When he came ashore he saw the second accused and told him to sell it. Evidently enough the latter did so and got 45 cents from a marine hawker at Reclamation Street.

His Worship pointed out that it was actually theft, if first accused saw a thing and picked it up.
Sergt. Fowle stated that the ship had left the Colony two days ago and that the ownership of the pump would lie in doubt. As the Police would be able to find out the real owner on the ship, they agreed to the marine hawker having it as he paid 45 cents for it.

In passing sentence his Worship warned the hawker to examine in future what things he bought, and to be careful.

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of tides from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr. Doreck during the years 1887, 1888 and 1889.
The times and heights are given for Kowloon; but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.
The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

NELSON DAY

It is to be hoped that the familiarity with which Nelson Day (or Trafalgar Day, as it is also known) is observed in the Colony will not tend to dim or mar the great reputation of the British naval hero who exclaimed "Thank God, I have done my duty," on October 21, 1805. Nelson won the battle of Trafalgar, but it cost him his life. Napoleon's power was broken; but Great Britain remained, as she has throughout the succeeding generations, "mistress of the seas." Thus, though Nelson be no more, yet he speaketh. He speaketh of the value of naval power. He speaketh of the need for preparedness in times of peace. He speaketh of the value of tactical principles in times of war. The lessons taught by him have never been forgotten. In spite of the tendency of to-day in the direction of smaller navies Nelson's great deeds come to us as a stern reminder of the need for adequate protection not alone of the Motherland but of the vast overseas territories, over which the Union Jack is proudly flying to-day; a reminder, too, of the necessity in foreign waters to protect British interests—lives and property—where these are at the mercy of pirates and brigands.

It is well, therefore, that in this Colony, so many thousands of miles away from the Horse Land, the local branch of the Navy League should perpetuate Nelson's memory on this day each year by the laying of wreaths on the Cenotaph and at the base of the monument in Wanchai. Likewise is it well that this simple and reverent act should direct attention to the unobtrusive work of the League throughout the rest of the year. The fundamental article of faith of the Navy League is the sufficiency and efficiency of the Navy. It does not, be it noted, seek superfluity: it does not demand the building of warships out of all proportion to the needs of the present generation: it would be the first to decry international competition merely for the sake of rivalry. With such excellent objects in view the Navy League endeavours to make the public in general familiar with the facts of sea life and the essential considerations that govern adequate and effective naval policy. It aims at bringing home to young and old alike the part played by the sea services in the foundation and preservation of the Empire, and at encouraging a further appreciation of the importance of close co-operation between all kindred British peoples.

There is nothing, it may be seen, in the objects of the Navy League inimical to the present propaganda for a reduction of naval and military armaments. All that the League asks is that the British Navy should be "sufficient" and "efficient." That is a simple creed to which every Briton in this Colony can cheerfully subscribe—but the mournful fact remains that year after year has the local branch to make a public appeal for more members. Why should this be so?

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Royal Army Ordnance Corps gave a successful "At Home" at Sookumpoo yesterday afternoon; the very enjoyable affair being attended by most of the Warrant Officers and Senior N.C.O.s of the Corps, with their wives and families.

The Kowloon Fire Brigade received a call last night from a house behind the Ming Sun Theatre, in Shamahupo, but on arrival found that a small fire, which had broken out in the kitchen had been extinguished by the inmates.

Leung Ching, a fisherman aged 20, living at an unnumbered house at Tin Kok, Taiipo, was knocked down and killed by a motor lorry, No. 527, owned by Hung Hing and Co., of Taiipo Market, and driven by Yan On. The scene of the fatality was in the main road near the District Officer's house, Taiipo.

Mr. Denis H. Hazell left for Shanghai yesterday by the s.s. "Trier" and will be away a month.

The driving of a hand truck without a licence cost a Chinese four dollars in the shape of a fine at the Kowloon Magistracy.

In Shanghai Street a Chinese robbed a compatriot of $9—an offence that led to his being sentenced to three weeks' jail at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day.

A Chinese stall holder in Argyle Street was fined $5 at Kowloon on Saturday for dumping rubbish. It was stated that the defendant had done it for several days before being "nipped in the bud."

Found riding a cycle in Prince Edward Road without lights at night a Chinese was forced to appear at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day, when he was relieved of a couple of dollars by way of a fine.

The packing of 40 and 46 chickens, respectively, in too small crates led to the appearance of a couple of Chinese at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day. They were lucky to get off with a caution.

Banished only in May last a Chinese saw fit to come back, only to fall into the clutches of the Police. His return cost him eight months in prison and 12 strokes with the birch at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day.

Liu Wang, the accountant and partner of the Yee Sang Cheung shop, of 153, Third-street West Point, has been arrested by the Police on a charge of alleged larceny of $150, the property of the firm.

The theft of one chicken from To Kwa-wan has resulted in a Chinese being sent to prison by the Kowloon Magistrate. "Severe" punishment was meted out to another for a like offence, namely, two months, as only last month he served a week for the crime of stealing what was not his.

Mr. D. McNeill, who played for Shanghai in the last two lawn bowls matches, was formerly with the Taiikoo Sugar Refinery, coming to the Colony 40 years ago. He still looks in the pink of health and is certainly an advertisement for the Colony. He leaves early this week to join his married daughter, Mrs. Sutor, in Shanghai.

A Chinese woman was charged before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday by Divisional Inspector G. A. Stimson with cruelty to eight chickens. She had put them in a cane basket, kept the top intact, and then covered the chickens, one on top of the other, with a brown coloured basket, thus excluding the air. She was fined $8.

The case in which three Chinese men are charged with transporting on a truck 88 gallons of dutiable liquor at Ki Lung Street was again mentioned before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday. Chief Preventive Officer S. J. Clarke, informed his Worship that the date for hearing had been fixed for October 22 at 2.15 p.m.

In a report to the Police last night, Cheung Chiu, a seaman of the Yau-mai ferry launch "Man Cheung," stated that at about 10.10 p.m., whilst the vessel was in mid-stream on a trip to Hong Kong, the cry suddenly went up that a third class passenger had jumped overboard. The vessel was stopped and a search made, but no trace of the suicide could be found.

A Chinese was cautioned at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday on pleading guilty to a charge of theft of some valueless planks of firewood, from a building contractor's shed at Mody Road at the junction of Chatham Road. His Worship said he would take it for granted that it was the boy's first offence, and warned him that if he was brought up before him again for theft he would be sent to prison.

The following forthcoming weddings are announced:—Mr. Charles Frederick Southin, Foreign Y.M.C.A. Shanghai, to Miss Winifred Emma Holloway, No. 47, Pinfold Street, Rugby, Warwickshire, who is travelling to the Colony on board the s.s. "Malaya." Mr. Sidney James Carter, Chief Officer of the s.s. "Langkade," to Miss Marie Schwanke Wuest, residing at the Kowloon Hotel.

WINTER DANCES

GARRISON SERGEANTS' MESS
INAUGURAL

G.O.C. PRESENT

The first of the winter dances of the Garrison Sergeants' Mess was held on the mezzanine floor of Messrs. Lane, Crawford's restaurant on Saturday night. It was attended by over 200 guests, who included His Excellency the General Officer Commanding, Major-General J. W. Sandilands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., and a large number of Staff and other Officers of the Garrison, and their ladies.

Lancers Encored
Dancing commenced at 8 p.m., and was continued until nearly midnight, and every one voted it a highly successful and enjoyable function. Excellent dance music was supplied by a band of Jazzers from the Somerset Light Infantry. The dances included the "Lancers," which was twice encored.

The catering for refreshments, etc., were, as usual, satisfactorily carried out by Messrs. Lane, Crawford, Ltd. Credit for the efficient organisation of the dance is due to S.M.S. Browne, R.A.P.C., who was ably assisted by Sergt. Sanderson, R.A.O.C., and Sergt. Burnett, R.A.P.C., who discharged the duties of M.C's.

ST. ANDREW'S

ASST. CHAPLAIN EXPECTED
THIS WEEK

REV. E. A. ARMSTRONG

The new Assistant Chaplain of St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon—the Rev. Edward A. Armstrong, B.A. (Cambridge)—is expected to arrive on the P. & O. s.s. "Kashgar" from Home, on Thursday afternoon, or early on Friday morning.

As a welcome for Mr. Armstrong, a congregational social, to which all are invited, will be held on Friday night at nine o'clock in the Church Hall.

A programme of music and games (in which young and old can participate) has been arranged by the Committee of the St. Andrew's Club. Refreshments will be served in the course of the proceedings, which will last till after eleven o'clock.

Mr. Armstrong is from a Mission Church at St. Mary Stokes, Ipswich, where he has been Curate-in-Charge since November, 1921.

Previous to this he was Curate of the Doncaster Parish Church for three years.

The Rev. W. W. Rogers
The Vicar of St. Andrew's, on furlough, in England, writing in a letter which was published in the Church Magazine in August, said:—
"He is well spoken of as a thoughtful preacher and an able man, especially good with boys and at 'Club' work, in which, as you know, he will find plenty of scope for his talents in Kowloon. He has also the further recommendation that he is an old friend of Mr. Sands."

He is keen on coming out, and my impression is that we are fortunate in having secured his services."

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will be back again in Kowloon about Christmas.

ST. MARGARET

FEAST DAY IN HAPPY VALLEY
CHURCH

CONDUCTED BY THE BISHOP

In honour of St. Margaret Mary d'Alcove, a feast was held yesterday at the Church bearing her name at Broadwood Road.

In the morning there was Solemn Pontifical Mass and Papal Blessing conducted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Valorta.

In the evening there were the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the recitation of the Rosary, a procession, headed by Boy Scouts and accompanied by the band composed of boys from St. Louis Industrial School, which wended its way round the Church, a Sermon preached by the Naval Chaplain, and Benediction.

The congregation was a large one at both services.

CORRESPONDENCE

THE S. P. C. A.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail."]
Sir,—Appropos Mr. Finnigan's remarks concerning the S.P.C.A., it would seem as if the two Inspectors engaged are employed in a direct instead of a supervisory capacity.

It was not by direct work that Henry Ford, the other day, turned out his 2,000,000th model "A" car, nor is it by direct work that two Inspectors can supervise an area so large as that of Greater Hong Kong. The work of these Inspectors can be efficient only to the extent that they control an efficient subordinate staff, sufficiently large for the nature of the work involved.

From the nature of their work, knocking around at all times and in all places, and their number, here is no body of men better fitted for the task than the police, and some scheme of co-ordination whereby the S.P.C.A. Inspectors could be incorporated in the Police force, supervising its P.C.A. activities, could give results, it seems to me, infinitely greater than those obtained by the unaided work of two lone individuals.

Yours, etc.,
"Do It Now."
Hong Kong, Oct. 21.

THE LATE MRS. BERG

FUNERAL TO TAKE PLACE
THIS AFTERNOON

AN ACCOMPLISHED LADY

The death occurred at the Peak Hospital yesterday, at the early age of 32, of Mrs. Berg, wife of Mr. Sverre Berg, who was until recently the Consul for Norway in Hong Kong.

Death came suddenly after a short illness. The deceased lady had only recently returned from a health trip to Adelaide, Australia, where she visited her family.

Lover of Art
An accomplished lady and great lover of art, Mrs. Berg was well-known both here and in Shanghai, numbering many friends in both places.

During her residence here she was a keen supporter of the local Art Club at which she had shown some of her clever work.

She also took a prominent part in the social life of the Colony, being a member of the International Club. Much sympathy is felt for her husband and son, Derek.

The funeral will pass the Monument at 5 p.m. to-day.

MOURNED BY MANY

PASSING OF DOCTOR AND PHILANTHROPIST

A "GOOD SAMARITAN"

The death of Mr. Kwok Nam-boon, a well known and respected Chinese doctor, at his residence in Queen's Road East, on Tuesday last, has dealt a severe blow to the cosmopolitan community, especially to the poorer classes, who had greatly benefited by his treatment and philanthropy.

The late Mr. Kwok was born at Shek Loong and came to the Colony when he was twelve years old. He practised medicine at the age of 24, on the death of his father, 42 years ago, and was descended from a family of doctors renowned for their generosity and forbearance.

Free Advice
To the deserving poor he gave free advice and supplied them with medicine. From those of moderate means he received fees according to their resources, so that he died practically a poor man himself, and all who went to him for assistance, whether they had been suffering from sore throat, dysentery, or malaria, spoke very highly of his medical ability.

Portuguese families relied implicitly on his treatment and regarded him with strong and sincere affection, for he was a man who took most interest in his patients than in himself.

Last Illness
Mr. Kwok took ill on September 22, and was attended by four doctors who diagnosed his illness as chronic nephritis and broncho-pneumonia. He died at the age of sixty-six. He is survived by a brother (who, it is understood, will succeed him in practice), his widow, two sons (the elder of whom is Mr. S. H. Kwok, of Messrs. E. D. Sassoon), and three daughters, with all of whom the deepest sympathy is felt.

The funeral took place at 1.30 p.m. on Saturday at Mount Caroline Cemetery. The profusion of wreaths which surrounded the grave bore testimony to the esteem in which the doctor was held by all.

LESSON-SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST,
SCIENTIST, HONG KONG

"Doctrine of Atonement" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 20.

The Golden Text was: "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure" (Phil. 2:12, 13).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation" (11 Cor. 5:18, 19).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The atonement of Christ reconciles man to God, not God to man, ... Christ, Truth, could conciliate no nature above his own, derived from the eternal Love. It was therefore Christ's purpose to reconcile man to God, not God to man" (P. 18).

Another of those attempts to commit suicide by jumping into the harbour from the Yau-mai ferry, Hong Kong-side, on the Central Ferry, occurred at about 5.30 p.m. on Saturday. The Chinese man who tried to end his life was saved by a boat man and removed to the Government Civil Hospital.

SHARES SENSATION

WARRANT ISSUED FOR A CHINESE

DISHONOURING CHEQUE SEQUEL

A sensation has been created in the House-street among share-brokers and a warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of a Chinese whose name is given as C. C. Fung. Large sums are involved.

This man is stated to have had an office in "Brokers' Alley." He purchased 1,000 "combined" shares in the Green Island Cement Co., Ltd. from the firm of Messrs. Harry O. Odell & Co. of Exchange Building. The scrip was delivered on Friday by Mr. Odell's brother-in-law, Mr. L. Well, who received a cheque for $11,700 in payment.

Fung then went to a foreign exchange bank and obtained an advance of $7,000 against the shares. This sum was drawn out in cash. Later on Friday afternoon Fung's cheque was returned to Messrs. Odell & Co. marked "refer to drawer."

Report to Police

In the interval, Messrs. Shawan, Tomes & Co., general managers of the Cement Co., were notified. The bank which had advanced the $7,000 sent in the scrip for registration of their lien and then the matter came to light.

In a contemporary on Saturday, Messrs. Odell & Co. issued a notice which read:—
"The public is warned that the unmentioned shares of the Green Island Cement Co., Ltd. are un-negotiable. If these shares have been negotiated, the party concerned is hereby requested to inform the undersigned."

On a report being made to the Police, Fung's office was visited but only a servant was on the premises at the time. As stated, a warrant has been issued.

Another Cheque?

Fung has been doing business with stockbrokers for a number of years and is well known to a number of them.

A foreigner who is not a share-broker is known to have had over $2,000 worth of shares deposited with Fung for safe custody. A European broker is also stated to have accepted another cheque (subsequently dishonoured) from Fung, in return for shares delivered.

Fung's people are said to live in Macao but he received most of his financial backing for his transactions from an aunt. He went to Macao often during week-ends, where he displayed a liking for the fan-tan table. On the last occasion, quite recently, his bets there were unfavourable, it is asserted, and he, accordingly, lost a considerable sum of money.

Inquiries are proceeding.

GAMBLERS FINED

RAIDS ON TWO CHINESE HOUSES

SERIES OF NOMINAL FINES

Raids on two Chinese houses resulted in two gambling parties being brought before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday.

In the first case there were ten defendants the first of whom was charged with keeping the ground floor of 74 Wai Ching Street as a common gaming house.

Five persons absconded themselves and their bills of $3 each were exonerated.

The first defendant was fined $50 and the second (the commission agent) $25, with the option of three weeks' jail, while the rest were fined $3 each.

The second case concerned 23 persons—15 men and eight women—mostly all either hawkers or stall folk.

The first was charged with keeping the ground floor of 70 Kromer Street as a common gaming house. He was fined $50 or one month's hard labour. The rest were each fined $2 or four days' jail, with the exception of two women who were discharged, they being asleep in the cockpit when the Police made the raid.

Money amounting to $5.68 was ordered to be confiscated, as well as some cards.

At the end of the case one of the accused was charged with spitting in Court. He pleaded ignorance of "fashion" and was cautioned.

OFFICER KILLED

BOMB VICTIMS IN AMOY NATIVE CITY

CASUALTIES OF A PATROL

Mystery surrounds a bomb incident a few days ago in one of the busiest streets of Amoy (native city).
Owing to the political tension elsewhere, a platoon of soldiers armed with Mauser pistols was out on patrol. A pedestrian walking ahead of and in the same direction as the troops threw a bomb overhead which fell in the middle of the parade and exploded with great violence. The officer in command was killed. Two men were seriously wounded, one having an arm blown off and the other losing a leg. There were several minor casualties.

Those of the troops who escaped unscathed, their weapons but refused from opening fire owing to the number of people running about. A number of arrests were made but those detained maintain that they ran only to get out of the danger zone.

CHILD SELLING

COMPLAINANT FAILS TO APPEAR

MAN DISCHARGED

Ng Tang, of Sui Nam, charged with the kidnapping of Chan Kau, nine years of age, from his stepfather and mother living at 314, Portland Street, on September 3, made another appearance before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday.

Sub-Inspector P. T. James stated that in view of the complainant's continued absence he would ask his Worship to discharge the defendant.

His Worship said that he was still suspicious about the defendant's evidence in which he stated he had received $3 from the mother of the boy to take the latter away. Another point was that when the child was missing the mother, at once said that he was in Macao. Through the step-father making a commotion about the loss of his stepchild, the mother gave the defendant away.

The defendant stated that he had known the woman to have been involved in the selling of a child before.

His Worship: You know more about this child selling business than you ought to.

Suspicious Circumstances
The Magistrate went on to say that there were two main points in the prosecution that failed. One was that the boy had been coached to say what he did in his evidence as he did not know whether he was taken on a ferry across the harbour or not? The other point was that the defendant said that the mother had given him three dollars, which brought suspicion to light.

His Worship told the defendant that he had given an unsatisfactory explanation, and that, no doubt, he must be a dealer in children. He would accordingly discharge the defendant, but only on the ground that the complainant had failed to return to the Colony.

Indecent Papers
Obscene Literature Flooded Colony

Distributed to Hawkers

Before Mr. A. W. G. H. Grantham, at the Central Magistrate's Court on Saturday, a Chinese admitted a charge of distributing material of an indecent, obscene, revolting and offensive nature, namely, a Chinese paper called the "Mo Tai Ng Toi Ng Yat Hon."

Sub-Inspector Carey, who prosecuted said that the paper was published in Canton and came to Hong Kong through the medium of the accused who distributed papers to newspaper hawkers for sale here.

The whole of this paper was obscene whilst one article was particularly bad. The accused also had other Chinese papers in his possession which were "tolerable."

A lot of these papers were coming into the Colony and the only means of stopping this objectionable trade was to make an example of those whom the Police succeeded in arresting.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of $50, or, in default, one month's hard labour.

ROUND THE CINEMAS

"ANYBODY HERE SEEN KELLY?"

DELIGHTFUL COMEDY

Not the sort of sentimental atmosphere that most films have, but a much brighter is the Universal Production, "Anybody Here Seen Kelly," showing at the Majestic Theatre to-day, with Tom Moore and Bessie Love in the leading roles.

An Irish traffic "cop" in New York City is the part Tom Moore admirably plays. Miss Love is seen as a French immigrant, in love with the constable, whom she met at the war. Kate Price, Tom O'Brien and Alfred Allen help in the laughter of the film.

RUTH VAN VALEY CO.

ENTERTAINS AT THE SHANGHAI CARLTON

AN EXCELLENT SHOW

The China Press (Shanghai) reports:—

The Ruth Van Valley Company at the Carlton theatre deserves appreciation in superlative terms. From the moment the show began until the end there was not a moment of dullness, every entertainer being a professional expert.

The audience were kept throughout at a high pitch of mirth, it almost appearing at times that their sides would burst from uncontrollable laughter.

Charlie Chaplin's Hollywood colleague, Rex Storey, who is the star comedian of the troupe keeps reminding one of Charlie himself. Being a high grade jester and an acrobat to boot, Storey together with Len Ayres, the talking, trickster, not only occupies the attention of the audience in the major acts to a large extent but also fills the intervals necessitated by the shifting of the various scene quite to the liking of the audience.

Ruth Van Valley, introduced to the audience by Len Ayres, as one of the best dancers in the United States, well maintained her reputation and enchanted her spectators. She presented her original dances in her own inimitable manner with the grace and the rhythm of the artist she is, and earned continued applause.

Together with Katherine Scott, Esther Van Valley gave a couple of musical oddities which were thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Scott herself rehearsed a poem, imitating a young girl, a young boy, a graduating high school girl and an elderly boy in succession; she also rehearsed an act as if she were a snick passenger in an American omnibus, and gave a very high impression of her mimicry.

Ice skating on the dry wooden floor of the stage, cross word puzzle and a song and dance offering by Jack Medford and Rosie Lee were also part of the programme.

The Bungalow
Of particular interest were witty remarks by the talkative trickster Len Ayres. He is more talkative than he is a "trickster." In producing a compact and miniature structure called "Hollywood Bungalow" out of which he nervously exhibited a bride, he stated that, in Hollywood anything with paint on, chicken in front, and nothing upstairs is known as a bungalow.

The magic performance of Rex Storey included catching gold fish from air. "Without a magic wand no magician can magic," says Len. "My mother married an electrician and I am the first shock."

The shannikin show featuring Federally playing on the piano, Al Nelson singing, Spanish madrigals, fighting bulls, a skeleton rattling its bones and ballet dancers performing, were of a better quality than has been given in Shanghai in a long time.

WARWICK REVUE
EXTENDED SEASON AT THE CITY HALL

PLEASING ANNOUNCEMENT

Many theatregoers who were unable to get seats for the opening night of the Warwick Revue Co. will be delighted to hear that, in response to many requests, Mr. Edgar Warwick has decided to play a short season of four nights only at the City Hall on the return of the Company from Canton, where performances are to be given to-day and to-morrow.

The phenomenal success of this company is well deserved, for the shows go with a swing, that is very exhilarating and the clean, wholesome, witty comedy is a joy to listen to, whilst the singing and dancing are of a very high standard.

There is no doubt that the company will receive a rousing reception on their return on Wednesday.

The booking is now open at Moutrie's and it would be wise to secure seats right away. Only one performance is to be given of each revue. On Wednesday night the company will open with the "Peep Show," followed by "High Lights" on Thursday, "The Merry Go-Round" on Friday, and "Airy Nothings" on Saturday.

Popular prices will prevail, namely: $3, $2 and $1.

For carrying pig wash in two buckets during prohibited hours a Hakkas woman was fined $2 at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday.

Inspector Blincoe pointed out that the accused had been charged two or three times before with similar offences.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

LADIES' GOLF CLUB

SUCCESSFUL SEASON REVIEW AT MEETING

NEW OFFICIALS

The ladies' section of the Royal Hong Kong Golf Club held its annual meeting this morning at the Helena May Institute, with Mrs. T. S. Whyte-Smith in the chair.

Addressing the meeting, the President said that the Club has had a very successful year, in that they were fortunate to have Mrs. Ferguson as their captain. It was indeed a matter of regret that Mrs. Ferguson was unable to be present at the meeting.

The Cups

The competitions during the season under reviewed had been most enjoyable ones, and they had to congratulate Mrs. Ferguson on winning the Taggart and Captain cups. They were also grateful to members for the presentation of other cups for the competitions.

They had played one match against the United Service, which was a great success, and they hoped that other similar matches be arranged in the future.

Thirty "Subs."

The subscriptions had also increased. No less than a sum of $720 came from that source, and this year they had been favoured with another thirty subscriptions.

The reports and accounts were then adopted. The election of new officers resulted in Mrs. Lewis being selected to be the new captain. The committee elected were: Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Sherry, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. McEachran, Mrs. Sheldon, and Mrs. Whyte-Smith.

Press Thanked

Votes of thanks were then recorded for the Press, the committee of the Helena May Institute, Mr. Gilmore, for auditing the accounts, the outgoing committee for their good work; Col. Matthews and to the President.

HIT BY A CLOG

YOUNG CHINESE FACES MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

ONLY PLAYING

Lo Choi, a young Chinese, was charged with manslaughter this morning at the Criminal Sessions before Mr. Justice J. R. Wood.

He was said to have unlawfully killed a playmate called Chan Mok on August 19 at Mongkok.

Accused, who was not represented by counsel, said that he and Chan Mok were playing. The latter gave him a blow, and he took his clog to hit him on the head. He did not mean to kill Chan Mok.

Taking that as a plea of not guilty, his Lordship adjourned the case until Wednesday morning.

RUSSIAN BOY HURT

KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTOR BUS

THROWN FROM CYCLE

Cheung Wong-yau, the driver of China Motor Bus Co. 138, reported an accident to the Police yesterday afternoon. The bus was in Nathan Road, near the Central British School when it collided with a bicycle which was being ridden by a Russian boy named Nicolas Borogoff (13).

According to Cheung, the cycle suddenly appeared from behind another bus and attempted to pass it. Before Cheung could apply the brakes the bus hit the cycle. Borogoff was thrown clear of the bus, but fell heavily and suffered injuries to his right side and arm. He was taken to the Kowloon Hospital under the wheels of the bus and was smashed beyond repair.

The 60th birthday commemoration at the Diocesan Boys' School is announced for Saturday, November 2, when H.E. the Governor will speak.

SUNDAY GOLF

F. S. HARRISON WINS SHEK-O CHAMPIONSHIP

36 HOLES IN 75

The championship of the Shek-O Golf Club was played off yesterday over 36 holes, the title being won by Mr. F. S. Harrison, who went round in 75 in the morning and 80 in the afternoon. His aggregate of 155 was two strokes better than the score returned by Mr. T. G. Bennett.

Four Strokes

Mr. Bennett took four strokes more than Mr. Harrison in the morning but improved in the afternoon when he returned a card of 78. Third place was taken by Mr. H. R. B. Hancock, who required 150 strokes for the 36 holes. The scores of the first three players were:—
F. S. Harrison 75 and 80 = 155
T. G. Bennett 79 and 78 = 157
H. R. B. Hancock 81 and 78 = 159
Mr. W. H. Lennox had the best round, 44, in the morning, but he took 89 in the afternoon. Mr. A. B. Stewart, the previous holder of the championship, was not playing, being on leave. Twenty-six completed yesterday.

Going to Calcutta.

Mr. Harrison, who has been manager in Hong Kong of the South British Insurance Co., Ltd., for some years, is leaving the Colony next month, on promotion to Calcutta. He will take with him the best wishes of a wide circle of foreign and business friends. As one of the directors of the Shek-O Development Co., Ltd., he has been identified with the east coast community at Shek-O and his services have been highly appreciated. The opportunity was taken yesterday by the Club to present Mr. Harrison with a beautiful silver salver as a parting gift, when the usual felicitous speeches were made.

FUR COAT LOSS

FRIEND WHO WAS DUPED BY FORGED LETTER REPORTED TO POLICE

Ku Chek-kei, a salesman at Messrs. Sincere's, has reported to the Police the theft, by a trick, of a fur coat worth $180, which had been entrusted to him by a friend with a view to selling it. According to Ku, his friend had since gone to the country.

A few days ago, however, an unknown man called on him and produced a letter purporting to have been written by Ku's friend and asking for the return of the coat of which the bearer of the letter was authorised to take possession, and take to the country with him.

The coat was handed over. Now Ku has been informed that his friend never gave authority to anyone to take the coat from him.

CANTON POLICE

OUTBOARD MOTORS FOR PATROL BOATS

MODERN INNOVATION

Canton, Yesterday.
With a view to securing maximum efficiency in the police department, a number of modern innovations have been introduced by General Auyang Kul, the Chief of Public Safety. It is now learned that outboard motors are to be installed on the police patrol boats. Yesterday, Mr. Kew, of Messrs. Rudolf Wolf and Kew, of Hong Kong, gave a practical demonstration of their Elto outboard motors before officials of the Police Department. One of the police boats was temporarily fitted with an 8-horsepower Elto on the stern. Although there was a crew of nine on board, the boat was able to travel at a rate of nine to ten miles an hour, outstripping a police motor launch which tried to pass her. The Elto motor worked without the slightest hitch, and the officials were well satisfied with its performance.

A Record Trial

It is interesting to note that Mr. Kew and two others came up from Hong Kong a week ago on a boat fitted with an Elto Service motor and returned two days afterwards; the trip demonstrating the reliability and efficiency of the motor and constituting a record for an outboard motor, as it was the first time that an outboard motor-boat had made such a long run to and fro between the two ports.—Canton News Agency.

IRONSIDES' MENACE

NO LONGER A QUESTION OF THE MOMENT

TO BE ROUNDED UP

Canton, Yesterday.
On account of the sudden change in the plans of the Central Government, General Chu Shao-liang, commander of the 6th Army Route, is sending back to the North the 3rd and 8th Divisions, leaving, however, the 50th Division to station at Shui-kwan on the North river. The 8th Division embarked yesterday.

The 3rd Division will wait for transports, which are due here in the course of the week. In a press interview on Saturday, General Chu said that he and General Mao Bing-wen of the 8th Division leave in a few days. Asked as to his opinion of Chang Fa-kuai and his troops, General Chu replied that the Central Government has ordered General Ho Chien, the Commander-in-Chief of the 4th Route Army, to round up the Ironsides. The menace of the Ironsides is no longer a question of the moment.—Canton News Agency.

PLEADS WITH FENG

REBEL LEADER PERSUADED TO SURRENDER

PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT

Hankow, Yesterday.
According to despatches received here Yen Hsi-shan has again returned from Taliuán to the Wutai mountains, where he has renewed his pleadings with Feng, and is endeavouring to persuade him to instruct his subordinates to cease their operations against the Government, and to wait calmly for a peaceful settlement.

Desultory Fire
Official bulletins report that the Kuomintang troops are near Heishinkwan and Yenshih, and continue a desultory fire against Government forces, but so far there are no important developments.

It is stated that Government planes are flying over the enemy's lines, and inflicting considerable damage.

Press Gangs Active
In spite of the general activity, the local situation continues comparatively quiet. Press gangs are at present active, but are confining their operations mostly to the native quarters.—Reuter.

ARABS SENTENCED

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF JEWS AT SAFED

Jerusalem, Yesterday.
Three Arabs have been sentenced to death for killing, in the Jew riots at Safed last August.—Reuter.

VOLCANOES ACTIVE

ONE QUIESCENT FOR 60 YEARS

Moskva, Yesterday.
Seven volcanoes are active at Kamchatka, one of which, Garbel, has been quiescent for 60 years.—Reuter.

TROTSKY'S DENIAL

NO INTENTION OF SUBMITTING TO SOVIET

OPPOSITION PROGRAMME

Constantinople, Yesterday.
Trotsky, who is in exile on Prinkipo Island, denies any intention of recanting. On the contrary, he says that his and Rakovsky's statement is far from intimating submission.

He expatiated upon the success of the Opposition programme.—Reuter.

(M. Rakovsky, late Soviet Ambassador in Paris, is reported to have been arrested and deported to Barnaul, in Siberia.)

This is said to be the Soviet reply to Rakovsky's and Trotsky's joint request for re-admission to the Communist Party.—Reuter.]

AUTOMATIC LOAN

FORMERLY U.S. MONOPOLY

London, Yesterday.
Delegates to the Textile Institute Congress to-day inspected a new automatic loom at Vickers' works, in Kent, which up to now has been an American monopoly, and not used outside America.

The firm state that they are endeavouring to mass-produce these automatic looms at an economic price.—Reuter.

AFGHAN'S SAVIOUR

HOPES TO LEAD COUNTRY TO PROGRESS

AMBITIOUS PLANS

Paris, Yesterday.
Nadir Khan has sent a message to the Kabul correspondent of the "Petit Parisien" saying that he has returned to Afghanistan, not to mount the throne, but to save the country. He hopes to lead Afghanistan along the road of progress, and make it independent and civilized. Also, he will open schools, develop roads, railways, and industries. He also hopes to strengthen friendship with all nations, particularly France.—Reuter.

BASEBALL

PHILLIES BALL GANG HIT BY HURRICANE.

RISE SUN IN ZENITH

[By "Bingle"]

The fifty ball players from the land of the Rising Sun certainly rose to their zenith on Saturday when they did battle against the Filipino Ball Club. They wrecked the Phillies like a big hurricane playing havoc with a small craft, as the score of 25 runs to 5 would tell the story.

The Filipino crew were sunk in the first canto, when they were retired with the mighty goose egg, and the Japanese took no fewer than seven tallies. The game was put on ice, but this did not mean that the Nippon outfit stopped on their brake. No! they put on double gear with the accelerator well pushed down, for they wanted to show their rivals what they could do.

Everybody Walks

Alvarez stood on the mound when the game opened, and after issuing three free passes to the Nippon lads, Zafra went in to relieve him. This did not improve the situation. The Japanese were sogging the Big Boy all over the field.

The Phillies' next trip to bat resulted in one run, and for their next two consecutive stanzas, they were retired with a blank. The Japanese piled one more in the second, and, in the third, four men came home.

Shorty Bautista then took to mound duty for the Phillies, and it became a walking match. He sent seven men to base on a free pass. This, of course, meant four men coming home on a free ride. Tamale went out to relieve him, and the Japanese played havoc with his deliveries just as well. This frame saw eight of the Nippon lads crossing the home plate.

Zafra's Fifth Homer

The Phillies made a rally in the fifth. With one man down, and two on base, Zafra walloped out a hefty one to left field for the home circuit, thus incidentally bringing the other two men home. Zafra has now made five home runs this season, which is the requisite number to win the cup specially presented for that purpose.

The Japanese retaliated by sending another three men home in the fifth. In the sixth, both sides registered one. The Phillies' last trip to bat ended in another blank.

The Japanese crew played an air-tight fielding game, and the Phillies had very little chance to penetrate the cordon. Kusano, at centre field, was a marvel. He brought off several impossible catches miles away from his territory. Hachiuma behind the home plate was the jack on the spot and gave much encouragement to his team.

Kiaoras Beat Yankees

The Yankees outfit suffered their seventh defeat of the season yesterday when they played the Kiaoras at Caroline Hill. They took the field with a strong reinforcement from the U.S. Navy, and things did not look very pleasant to the Apple and Lemon.

The Yanks, however, made one mistake. They should have put Anderson on mound duty right from the start instead of Payne.

The mistake was a costly one, for the Kiaoras at once took a profound liking to the deliveries of Payne and sogged the old horsehide all over the

SWIMMING FETE

LAST OF SEASON AT THE V.R.C.

NEW RECORDS

J. R. Johnston, who is swimming better than ever this year, broke another V.R.C. bath record on Saturday night when the Club held its seventh and last night swimming fete of the season. "Jimmy" won the 880 yards Free Style Championship of the Colony in the fine time of 11 mins. 57.2-5 secs. clipping 20 seconds from the previous record of 12 mins. 17 secs. which he set up himself as far back as 1916 and remained untouched for 13 years! The previous record, it might be mentioned, was made swimming in the harbour outside the V.R.C. boat-house.

L. Roza Pereira was the only other competitor in the 880 yards race and he did the course in 12 mins. 25 secs.

A Chinese Feat
Another V.R.C. bath record was broken by Wong Siong-heng who bettered the record of 75 secs. set up by Leung Siu-man who won the 100 yards Back Stroke Championship of the Colony last year, and reduced it by one second at one of this season's night fetes. Leung did not defend his title on Saturday night.

Miss M. George Again
The 100 yards Free Style Ladies' Championship of the Colony was again won by Miss M. George whose time of 1 min. 25.2-5 secs. was a great improvement on her last year's performance when she was clocked at 1 min. 31.1-5 secs. Miss D. Hunt was second, almost ten seconds behind the champion.

A Pillow Fight
The Pillow Fight competition (sitting astride a pole suspended across the bath) provided much fun. Many pairs took part and, whilst some of the bouts were of short duration—only one blow sufficing to put an opponent off balance and cause him to fall into the water—others lasted two rounds through both fighters toppling over but continuing the fight, holding on to the pole with one hand and both legs.

The Navy did not have so many chances of scoring but made good use of the three which came their way. The Fukienese turned the trick only twice out of at least five openings. They have a sound all-round knowledge of the game and as soon as they improve in their shooting they will be a tough side to reckon with in the Water Polo League.

Mr. S. Gray, as the representative of the Kowloon Dock R.C. (the Club with the best position in the League on the winning side) then received custody of the trophy amid cheers by the Kowloon team, who also were individual recipients of souvenir spoons.

Three hearty cheers were accorded to His Excellency.

A Mixed Team Race was won by W. Foraita's team, which included Miss M. George.

A Water Polo game between the Royal Navy and the Fukien Club closed an enjoyable evening's water sport. It was won by the Royal Navy by 3 goals to 2. Their opponents, the Fukien Club, did not deserve to lose. They had the ball oftener than the sailors, but, although their passing was good, they were weak in shooting, and thus many good chances went begging.

All the goals scored were well merited, however, the goal-keepers having no chance with any of them. (Continued at foot of next Column)

RESULTS

The results were as follow:—

50 yards Members' Handicap.—1. A. V. Gosano, Time: 32 secs.; 2. J. A. Victor.

880 yards Free Style (Championship of the Colony).—1. J. R. Johnston, Time: 11 mins. 57.2-5 secs. (Record); 2. L. Roza Pereira, Time: 12 mins. 25 secs.

50 yards Boys' Handicap.—1. A. Roza, Time: 40 secs.; 2. E. Marques.

Pillow Fight (Members).—Winner: R. Silva-Netto; Runner-up: George Lynn. There were 14 competitors.

100 yards Free Style (Ladies' Championship of the Colony).—1. Miss M. George, Time: 1 min. 25.2-5 secs.; 2. Miss D. Hunt.

100 yards Back Stroke (Championship of the Colony).—1. Wong Siong-heng, Time: 71.2-5 secs. (Record); 2. J. R. Johnston. Only two competitors.

Leung Siu-man, last year's champion, did not swim.

Services Team Race (four a side, each to swim 50 yards).—1. Royal Navy, Time: 1 min. 58.2-5 secs.; 2. Royal Artillery. The Navy won comfortably by about ten yards.

Mixed Team Race (five a side, each to swim 50 yards).—Won by W. Foraita's team, the other four members of which were: Miss M. George, R. Silva-Netto, J. R. Soares, and Ed. da Roza. Time: 3 mins. 20 secs. Three teams competed.

Water Polo.—Royal Navy beat the Fukien Club by 5 goals to 2.

post with a first time drive, after which play remained in the Club half until the whistle blew for half-time.

Half Time:—

Navy 1
H.K.F.C. 0

Some Lively Play

The resumption produced some lively play at first, with the Navy gradually becoming predominant. Good runs down the left wing put the Club in position, but Scott's centres were not accepted. Dickinson robbed Holmes of the ball, and sent in a fine drive which Rodgers could not save.

After this point had been added, nothing seemed to go right for the Club, their passes being bad, or Kernick proved himself a tower of strength to the Navy, taking upon himself some of the duties of a half-back, although always in his place when the forwards got going. For the last twenty minutes play was hardly out of the Club half, and though Dickinson tried some swings from 30 yards out, they were usually just too high to hit the bar. No further score resulted, the final whistle leaving the Navy winners by the only two goals scored.

Result:—

Royal Navy 2
H.K.F.C. 0

The defence on both sides was good, though the Club backs, by reason of their height, excelled more in heading than in foot work. Bishop showed to better advantage than Holmes, who would play a sounder game at forward. Lambert was the pick of the Navy halves, and Kernick the best forward on either side. The Navy will lose a fine player when he goes home next month. His loss will be felt especially by his wing man, Bocking, with whom he has an excellent understanding.

POLICE v. SOMERSET L.I.

Soldiers Gain Couple of Valuable Points

At the Stadium the soldiers managed to collect the points by defeating Police, in a keenly contested game, by three goals to one. Mr. Mackie lined up the following teams:—

Somerset Light Infantry:—Hall; Hayward; Crawley; Knapp; West; Harris; Palmer; Bewley-Bull; Rayson; Baker and Butcher.
Police:—Estall; Wynne; Williams; McGrawey; Hudson; Jessop; Gowans; Fraser; Johnson; Valentine; and Howarth.

Johnson kicked off with the wind behind him, and a pass to Howarth was frustrated by Palmer who captured the ball and led the attack for the Somerset. He was ably supported by Bewley-Bull and Rayson, and in a matter of seconds play was fast and furious in the Police goal area. A 'close-in' shot from Rayson was deflected by Wynne, who conceded a corner. Butcher took the shot, but Baker missed an opportunity of giving his side the lead by shooting high.

Up to this stage play on the part of Police appeared to lack enthusiasm, but the continued bombardment of their citadel eventually compelled them to realise that reprisals must be made. Fraser made a break-way which came to nothing through lack of support. Knapp once more transferred the ball to the Somerset end, and Estall, Wynne, and Williams were, for the time being the busiest trio on the field. The first named giving a display in goal which was nothing short of brilliant. Time and again he repulsed the invaders by clever tactics. When it appeared that the first half would end with the card clean, Palmer put in a 'first-timer' after a pass from West, which nothing short of a miracle could have prevented.

Half time:

Police 0

Pretty Football

On crossing over the S.L.I. evidently had determined to increase their lead. This was apparent by the aggressiveness of their quintette, who gave an object lesson in pretty head and foot work outside the enemy goal. Their repeated efforts gave Estall countless opportunities of proving his merits as a custodian. At this stage the Police had greatly improved their standard of play. McGrawey, Hudson, and Jessop feeding their forwards consistently with well judged passes. Howarth and Gowans both made several valiant attempts from their respective wings but Hall, Hayward, and Crawley put up a worthy defence for the soldiers.

The S.L.I. once more got the run of the game after a series of even exchanges and Baker netted with a clean straight shot, thereby increasing the lead for his team.

The Police were now on their mettle, and it was not long before Valentine put one in which left Hall standing.

Encouraged by this the Police strove hard for the equaliser but the perfect combination of the S.L.I. and the alertness of their defence made their goal impregnable. After a short period of desultory play Baker again recorded within a few minutes of full time.

Result:—

S.L.I. 3
Police 1

A Fair Indication

It was a straight clean game from the start. There is no doubt that the final score was a fair indication of the abilities of the two teams. The S.L.I. have every appearance of being a well-balanced and a well-trained team. Their attack was, however, decidedly superior to their defence, although the latter were not called upon sufficiently for a true idea to be formed of their capabilities.

Amongst the forwards Palmer, Bewley-Bull and Butcher were undoubtedly the stars, while Harris in the half back line played a clever game.

Outstanding amongst the Police team was the stylish play of Estall, who was at times the hardest worked man on the field and almost invariably acquitted himself nobly. Wynne was also a lion of the defence, whilst Macgravy, Hudson, and Jessop gave good support to Fraser, Valentine, and Howarth, the principal leaders of the attack.

ST. JOSEPH'S v. CHINESE ATH.

Chinese Overwhelm the "Saints" at the Valley

Played on the Club ground at Happy Valley. It must have been generally considered that this game would be too one-sided to be interesting, for there was a far smaller attendance than is usual for an Athletic first team match. Events fully justified predictions for the Athletic had matters their own way from start to finish, and had they exerted themselves a little more many goals could have been piled up. As it was they were content for the greater part of the game to practise some fancy passing, which, although pretty to watch, was lacking in any sort of a thrill. St. Joseph's made a plucky attempt against overwhelming odds, but they are hardly up to the class of football which Athletic can produce. The teams were:—

St. Joseph's:—Rocha; Hyder; Gomes; Castillo; Reid; C. Omar; R. Omar; L. Sousa; T. Leonard; Jackson, and Fernandez.
Chinese Athletic:—Chan Shek-pui; Ng Kam-chuen; Lai Yuk-tat; Wong Shui-wa; Ho Choi-yin; Tso Kwai-sing; Suen Kam-chun; Wong Pak-cheung; Ho Kai-kong; and Chan Kwong-lai.

Referee:—Lieut. Senl, R.A.
Athletic Score Early
It was soon obvious that it was to be a case of Athletic first, St. Joseph's nowhere, for the former took control right from the commencement. The few dangerous movements set up by the "Saints" in the opening half came almost invariably from the left wing, where Jackson and Fernandez struggled gamely to set the whole forward line in motion. After battering away at goal for a few minutes Athletic jumped into the lead through Suen, who threaded his way through the defence with consummate ease and gave Rocha no chance.

The St. Joseph's defence came into the picture at this stage and by persistent and dogged tackling for a time kept their opponents at bay. The continuous pressure set up, however, was bound to fructify, and Tso Kwai-sing put the crowd in high good humour with a glorious cross shot which Rocha could scarcely have seen.

Suen added a third goal shortly before the change over, Wong Pak-cheung giving him a delightful opening which was turned to full account.

Half-time:—

Chinese Athletic 2
St. Joseph's 0

Interest Dies Down

What little interest there had been in the opening half almost entirely disappeared after ends were changed. Wong Pak-cheung retired after about ten minutes play and, with the rest of the Athletic players taking things easy, St. Joseph's began to take a more active part in attack. T. Leonard worked hard in the centre forward position and several times found himself in the vicinity of the Athletic goal, as also did Jackson, but the opposing defenders were always able to get the ball away without troubling Chan Shek-pui very seriously. Rocha earned applause by a smart save from Tso Kwai-sing before being well beaten by Suen, who took the ball on the run and drove between the sticks at a great pace.

The game fizzled out completely toward the end and the final whistle came as a relief to players and spectators alike.

Result:—

Chinese Athletic 4
St. Joseph's 0

The Leading Light

The game called for little in the way of additional comment. The Athletic defence naturally did not have to put themselves out very much, and their play can therefore scarcely be judged. In the vanguard Suen was, of course, the leading light, his passing and ball control in Eastern had nearly all the play, being a delight to watch. Tso Kwai-sing was another to show fine form, while Ho Kai-kong substituted adequately for Lee Wai-koon.

The St. Joseph's defence is deserving of great credit. Rocha can hardly be blamed for any of the shots which passed him, and he saved many which would have beaten most other goalkeepers. Hyder and Gomes gave him excellent support, the former being specially safe when hardly pressed. Reid impressed most in the middle line, while Jackson and Fernandez show promise of becoming a very useful wing.

The Saints have no call to feel despondent, for with a little reshuffling and the acquisition of a goal scoring forward or two, I should not be surprised to see them finish the season well away from the bottom of the table.

Division II

CHINESE "B" v. R.A.

A Drawn Game at The Stadium

Played at the Stadium, this game, which lacked interest throughout, ended with an even score. The R.A. were perhaps slightly superior on the general run of the play, but their forwards appeared to lack goal-scoring ability.

The first incident of excitement was the award of two successive penalties to the R.A. who on both occasions missed unique opportunities of getting the lead. A pass from Bridgeman was collected by Gough, who in turn passed to Reid, but this player was relieved of the ball by Chan Mau-min. The R.A. again assumed the aggressive and after a pass from Maltby, Gardiner succeeded in giving them the lead.

Half Time:—

R.A. 1
Chinese "B" 0

On resuming the R.A. again took up the attack, but smart work on the part of Ng Hong-hing, Sui Kuen-cho, and Wong Sik-ping, successively, held them at bay. It was not until within a few minutes of time that the Chinese managed to get the equaliser, Leung Fat-wing netting with a fast shot, which went just out of Lawrence's reach.

Result:—

R.A. 1
Chinese "B" 1

ST. JOSEPH'S v. UNIVERSITY

College Win Good Game on Merits

Played at Happy Valley, this game was well contested and interesting throughout. St. Joseph's won on their merits, the forwards being a heavier and more virile line than the University quintette. The latter had quite a fair share of the play, however, and should develop into quite a useful side.

The teams were:—
St. Joseph's:—A. Omar; F. Sousa; L. Harvey; Delgado; K. Omar; J. Lazama; L. Silva; Gutierrez; A. Minu; Haroon; and Wee Iau-tong.
University:—Noronha, S. P. Loh, H. T. Bee; D. Alvares, S. L. Wong, K. S. Lew; H. Braga, Y. F. Boon, H. N. Chung, S. H. Ling and H. L. Lee.

Referee:—L/Cpl. Grieve, K.O.S.B.
Opening exchanges were very even, both defences having difficulty in keeping some keen forwards in check. Haroon, who played a fine game throughout, opened the scoring for the "Saints", while Braga equalised for the "Varsity" after a scramble in the goal mouth. F. Sousa gave a fine display at back for the Saints.

Half-time:—

St. Joseph's 1
University 1

The home team were superior after the change of ends and did the majority of the offensive work. L. Silva had hard luck with a fine cross shot which struck the side of the crossbar and rebounded into play before A. Minu got through to give the "Saints" the lead.

The same player again scored to put the issue out of doubt before the close of a very good game.

R.A.M.C. v. EASTERN

The Medicals Disappoint Their Supporters

The Medicals grievously disappointed their supporters by again failing to take a point. For their defeat they have partly to blame their defence, who started off very shakily. The attack improved as the game progressed and, with a little luck, a much closer struggle would have been witnessed.

The teams were:—
R.A.M.C.:—McGowan; Dodson; Pritchard; McAulian; Joyce; Thomas; Elliott; Jenkins; Smith; Tucson, and Goodman.
Eastern:—Da Silva; Lau Ching-yan; Cheung Lap-fan; Tso Po-shai; Cheung Yul-nam; Lee Bing-tong; Fung Yui-wai; Ng Ting-ay; Sillsh; Lai Ting-choi; and Sabhan.

Referee:—Mr. Ip Kau-ko.
Eastern started off very aggressively, Sabhan being in fine form on the left wing, while Lee Bing-tong was almost equally effective. Some glaring mistakes occurred in the first few minutes, during which Sabhan missed an open goal from Lee Bing-tong's centre, and again narrowly missed a moment later. McGowan brought off a splendid save before being beaten by Lee Bing-tong seven minutes from the start.

The Medicals steadied down after this reverse and had more of the exchanges, but Eastern were still the more dangerous in attack.

Half-time:—

Eastern 1
R.A.M.C. 0

The Medicals sustained a further reverse soon after the resumption. They forced a corner on the right and the ball came back to Sabhan, who found the defence too far up the field. After a brilliant run down the field he had no difficulty in scoring from close in. The same player repeated this manoeuvre a few minutes later, but on this occasion McGowan brought off a fine save. A free kick was awarded to Eastern, and Lau Ching-yan scored with a clever drive, which struck the crossbar and entered the back of the net.

The Medicals pressed strongly for the remainder of the game but their luck was dead out. Smith, Elliott and Tucson were prominent in their vanguard.

SOUTH CHINA "B" v. NAVY

Four Goals Win For The Bluejackets

A fairly strong wind was blowing when South China kicked off at Caroline Hill, and their backs were unable to make much headway, or to give accurate passes. The Navy ran out winners by four goals to one, the result just about reflecting the play.

The teams lined up as follows:—
South China "B":—Lai Tai-shing; Li Shin-hong; Din See-chuen; Yai Ting-wah; Yeung Kim-po; Cheung Kwok-choy; Li Hing-chow; Tang Yang-sheung; Wong Mee-shin; Lai Kong-hai; and Shak Tak-on.

Royal Navy:—Clark; Abbott; Hermin; Mellett; Jones; Charlton; Clarke; Sorbie; Goodridge; Fleming; and Lee. Referee:—Mr. Lamb.

At the beginning of the game South China pressed, but the Navy retailed a dangerous pass from Clarke being cleared by Din See-chuen. Continuing to press the Navy forced a corner from Lai Tai-shing, and later a lovely dropping shot beat the same player, to give Sorbie his first goal.

A penalty given against South China was taken by Sorbie, who netted with a nice drive to which the goalkeeper only got by throwing himself at it full length. Li Hing-chow centred for Wong Mee-shin to run the ball in. Half-time was sounded with the Navy still pressing.

Half-time:—

Navy 2
South China 1

On resuming, South China pressed, but were soon penned in their own half. The Navy had a number of pot-shots, all of them going wide, or over the bar. Toward the end Fleming scored, the ball hitting the post and reaching the net. Shortly afterwards, a melee in front of the South China goal gave the same player another opportunity, of which he took advantage.

Result:—

Royal Navy 4
South China "B" 1

The Chinese right wing was the more dangerous, but the defence proved too good for the inside forwards. Sorbie and Clarke showed up well for the Navy, as did Fleming, Jones, and Abbott.

SOUTH CHINA "A" v. RECREIO

Chinese Retain Their Unbeaten Record

Playing on the H.K.F.C. ground South China "A" maintained their unbeaten record and scored a decisive victory over Recreio by three clear goals. The losers were not able to field a very strong side and were occasionally unlucky in not opening their account. On the whole, however, South China were good value for their win, the whole team playing with great dash and keenness.

Ip Koon-ling opened the scoring early in the first half and Tam Kwong-pak added a second before the interval, as the result of a penalty.

Half-time:—

South China "A" 2
Recreio 0

Matters continued to go against Recreio in spite of plucky efforts by G. Gosano and Bernardo. South China came through again with a nice goal from long range, Tang King-ki being the scorer.

For the winners Chang Yok-kwai played a fine game in goal, while Lau Kai, Fung Man-kit, and Ip Koon-ling were other players to whom great credit is due. Marques played like a Trojan in the Recreio goal and was well supported by Oliveira and Brito. C. Gosano and I. Santos were other players of note.

Result:—

South China "A" 3
Recreio 0

SOMERSET L.I. v. CHINESE

ATHLETIC "A"

Soldiers Go Under By Two Goals

The state of the ground marred good football at Chatham Road when the Chinese team defeated the soldiers by two goals.

S/Sgt. Flaherty was referee and the teams were:—

Somerset:—Wallace; Verrier; Lawrence; Gormally; Mead; Chidgey; Nell; Easter; Deakin; Guest; Shvrett; Chinese Athletic "A":—Wong Yun-ling; Li Bin-pin; Wong Shui-wo; Lai Kwong-chiu; Li Hing-ching; Shek Piu-tin; Chow Yim-ching; Ng Tak-wong; Chan Yung-kwai; Li Fong.

The Somersets had a stiff breeze in their favour in the first half and from the commencement were attacking; Wong Yun-sing being called on to save from Denmead, and Guest quite early. The Somersets should have had a couple of goals, but none of the forwards seemed to allow for the wind, with the result that their shots went very wide. The Chinese defence played up well and deserve great praise for the way they held the forwards in check throughout the first half. They never got a moment's respite and when the whistle sounded for a hard earned rest the Chinese were lucky not to be at least two goals down.

Half-time:—

Somersets 0
Chinese Athletic "A" 0

Changing ends Athletic were soon attacking and Wallace had to save a couple of nasty shots in as many minutes. The score was soon to be opened, however. Li Tong took a flag kick which Wallace misjudged owing to the wind, and landed the ball in the corner of the net.

Wallace saved a couple of pretty shots from Li Tong and Li Hing-ching. A corner from the right wing was placed nicely for Li Tong, who got his foot to the ball and scored, giving Wallace no chance.

The Somersets then got away and a shot from Easter looked very promising, but Wong Yun-sing brought off a fine save. Exchanges for the remaining five minutes were fairly even.

Result:—

Chinese Athletic "A" 2
Somerset L.I. 0

KOWLOON v. EWO

Second Win For The Same Side

Playing at Kowloon on Saturday afternoon Kowloon defeated Ewo for the second time this season. Sgt. Vickery was referee and lined the teams up as under:—
Kowloon:—Angus; Springett; Hast; Moore; Campbell; Seddon; Hannan; Spary; Moss; Coats; Bickford.
Ewo:—Chan Yun-po; Chan Mok-ching; Lam Ho-yin; To He-hang; Chang Kan-tong; To Ho-chin; Ho Yun-yin; Chan Yui-ying; Chan Shu-tong; Wan Kam-pui; Fung King-yue.

The first fifteen minutes were very uneventful, both teams having numerous shots at goal and putting high over. Two corners for Ewo caused consternation in the Kowloon goal, the ball eventually being cleared, at the same time giving Hannan a chance which was frustrated by Lam Ho-yin. Ewo came back, and their right wing was very prominent, but Hast cleared before any damage could be done.

Play was transferred to Ewo's end where Coats hit the upright with a powerful drive. Shortly afterwards Chan Mok-ching was penalised for holding. Moss took the spot kick and placed it nicely, giving Chan Yun-po no chance.

Wan Kam-pui missed a good chance to equalise when, with only Angus to beat, he over-ran the ball. As Angus was taking the goal kick the interval arrived.

Half-time:—

Kowloon 1
Ewo 0

Resuming, Kowloon were soon on the aggressive and some pretty combination play by the forwards deserved better results. Ewo fought hard to equalise and after a time they succeeded through the medium of Chan Shui-wing.

However, Kowloon were by this time determined to win and attacked with much more vigour. The winning goal was not long in coming, Hannan putting the finishing touches to a centre from Spary.

Ewo tried hard but could not get the finish to their shots.

Result:—

Kowloon 2
Ewo 1

K.O.S.B. v. HONG KONG F.C.

Played on the Sookumpoo enclosure this game turned out to be a good thing for the Borderers, who won with great ease by four goals to nil. The game had only been in progress five minutes when Bird gave his side the lead after a clever combined forward play.

A period of intensive attacking followed and further success came when Crawley put the ball in from close range.

A glorious shot from Stevens hit the crossbar and travelled over a moment later. The Hong Kong forwards began to take up the running at this stage but failed to penetrate a sound defence.

Half-time:—

K.O.S.B. 2
Hong Kong F.C. 0

The second half was a very one-sided affair, the Borderers slackening off a lot after a time. Craig was prominent with a great drive which missed by inches. Wilson did some great defensive work for the Club and the winners were kept in check until shortly before the final whistle when Bird again got through.

Result:—

K.O.S.B. 3

SCHOOLS' RIVALRY

Central British Defeat The D.B.S.

Playing on their own ground at King's Park the Central British School XI defeated the Diocesan Boys' School by one goal to nil after a fast and exciting game.

The standard of "soccer" was good throughout; exchanges being shared equally. The goal that won the game for the home team was scored by Hyman. The referee was L. Stirling of the C.B.S.

SUCCESSFUL TRIAL GAME.

Distinct Improvement In Fielding

A fairly successful test was carried out on Saturday on the Hong Kong Cricket Ground when E. B. Reed's team met H. R. B. Hancock's team. Generally the whole game was well played. The fielding was a distinct improvement on that of last week and the bowling more accurate. J. Richardson made an excellent score of 58 runs and was caught out by Major Crake.

Six members of Hancock's team did not bat. The scores were as under:—

INDIAN R.C. v. CRAIGENGOWER

The Indian Recreation Club entertained the Craigengower Cricket Club at Sookumpoo and defeated them by 82 runs. The Craigengower Club were not at home at the wicket which was not a good one by any means. Several batsmen sustained slight injuries owing to the uneven pitch. The Indian Club fielded excellently and although some of the bowling was erratic, some good average were obtained, especially by A. M. Rumjahn, who claimed 4 wickets for 19 runs. F. El Arculli also did well with two wickets for one run.

The Craigengower Club's bowling was also well up to their usual standard even though it was obvious that they were having difficulty with the length of the balls on a matting.

H.K.C.C. 2ND XI. v. RECREIO

The Club de Recreio put up a good fight against the Hong Kong Cricket Club 2nd XI on their own ground but were rather outclassed both in batting and bowling, nevertheless some very good individual play was witnessed.

The Hong Kong Club batted first and took advantage of some rather slow bowling to make several boundaries. J. Hinton hit out lustily and was finally well caught by Sousa after putting up the highest score of the game.

The Club de Recreio will probably do well this season if only a really fast bowler can be found.

The Hong Kong Club's Bowling was as fast as the Recreio's was slow and not so tricky. This was where C. M. Sousa scored his successes.

NAVAL QUESTIONS

PROVISIONAL CHATS BETWEEN TWO PREMIERS

DOMINIONS TO BE CONSULTED

Ottawa, Yesterday.
The conversations between Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and Mr. MacKenzie King have concluded. Responsible opinion recognises that the discussions on naval questions must have been provisional, pending the meeting of the London conference and consultation with the other Dominions.—Reuter.

Imperial Questions
London, Yesterday.
Ramsay MacDonald dined last night with the Canadian Premier, Mr. MacKenzie King, with whom he has now concluded the conversations dealing with Anglo-American relations, and various other Imperial questions.

The British Premier is leaving to-night for Montreal, and is expected to sail for home next week-end.

In Press interviews he has again emphasised that in his conversations with President Hoover nothing in regard to naval questions took place which was binding upon either Great Britain or the United States. Whatever is binding will be decided at the five Power conference to be held in London next January.

All he claims to have accomplished is to have helped to create an atmosphere of goodwill, and to have found President Hoover in complete agreement that there shall be no Anglo-American naval rivalry.—British Wireless Service.

Sworn in as Councillor

London, Saturday.
Mr. Ramsay MacDonald at Ottawa yesterday was sworn in as a member of the Canadian Privy Council. At luncheon he was guest of Mr. Bennett, leader of the Opposition in the Canadian Parliament, and at night was the guest at dinner of Lord Willingdon, Governor-General.

Reports that Mr. MacDonald's health has been impaired by the strain of the tour, are completely unfounded. Although the programme has resulted in normal fatigue, the heaviest part is past, and the crisp Canadian air is having a refreshing effect upon him. He will return to England at the end of the present month, or in the first days of November, and is looking forward to meeting the House of Commons soon after it reassembles.

The announcement that France and Italy are to try to secure a preliminary understanding between themselves is warmly welcomed by the Prime Minister, who believes that such an understanding would help immensely towards the success of the Conference.—British Wireless Service.

FLYING DISPLAY

GIVEN BY FLEET AIR ARM PILOTS

FOR BENEFIT OF TURKS

London, Saturday.
Thirty British air pilots of the Fleet air arm, flying off the aircraft carrier "Courageous" yesterday, gave a display of formation flying and aerobatics at Constantinople, where Admiral Sir Frederick Field, Commander-in-Chief of the Mediterranean Fleet and a squadron of warships are now paying a visit. It was the first of its kind ever given for the benefit of a foreign Power.

As a final event sixteen machines formed the star and crescent of the Turkish flag, and keeping the precise position, flew in this formation over Constantinople and back to the "Courageous".—British Wireless Service.

"ENGLAND EXPECTS EVERY MAN"

TRAFALGAR DAY

ANNIVERSARY OF NELSON'S DEATH

NAVY LEAGUE'S WREATHS

To-day being the anniversary of Lord Nelson's death at Trafalgar, observances are being held as usual in Hong Kong, with the local branch of the Navy League taking a prominent part.

In the morning, the President and Committee of the Navy League assembled at the Hong Kong Club to lay the wreath (with the Royal Naval design) at the Cenotaph in Statue Square. The floral tribute was carried by the Hon. Sir Henry Pollock, K.C., and Commodore R. A. S. Hill, R.N. (in charge of R.N. establishments, Hong Kong).

Sheaf of Flowers
Others who took part included Mr. W. A. Dowley, who carried a sheaf of flowers with the inscription "In memory of L. M. Whyte. From President and Members, Navy League."

Mr. Whyte, who was for a long time a Hong Kong resident, acted for many years as the indefatigable honorary secretary of the Navy League branch and he died recently. Mr. R. Sutherland, O.B.E., Mr. H. Davenport Browne, Mr. L. C. F. Bellamy, M.C., Mr. Marriott (Hon. Secretary), the Rev. G. T. Waldegrave (Missions to Seamen), Mr. W. J. Stokes (Marine Engineers' Guild of China), Captain T. T. Laurensen, D.S.C. (China Coast Officers' Guild).

Annual Concert

Captain P. Perfect, Aide-de-Camp, also laid a wreath on behalf of H.E. the Officer Administering the Government (the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southern, C.M.G.). Those assembled then proceeded to the Royal Naval monument at Wan-chai where the ceremonies were repeated. Under the auspices of the Navy League, the annual concert is being given in the Lee Theatre, East Point, at nine o'clock to-night.

PACIFIC IDEALS

CLOSER FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN PORTUGAL AND SPAIN

VISIT OF ALFONSO

Madrid, Yesterday.
In connection with the visit of the Portuguese President, General Carmona, to Madrid, as guest of the Spanish Government, it is semi-officially stated that "the realisation of pacific ideals makes it desirable that the two countries enter into closer relations, which are the more necessary in order to face a changing world, and the exigencies of national economy."

This foreshadows, apparently, Luso-Spanish agreements, and the visit of King Alfonso to Portugal.—Reuter.

MINISTER'S FLIGHT

LORD THOMPSON DESCRIBES AIRSHIP TRIP

"SUPERB COMFORT"

London, Saturday.

Lord Thomson, the Air Minister, was extremely enthusiastic about his long flight in the airship R.101 yesterday. The airship did not return to Cardington until after midnight, and when she had been locked home on her mast, Lord Thomson, in an interview, described the flight as one of the most pleasant experiences he had ever had.

Sense of Restfulness
He had never been so comfortable in any ocean or river vessel, and the sense of restfulness and comfort was superb. The heat had been turned on, and he did a normal day's work, and enjoyed his meals in spacious quarters. He emphasised that the present flights were experimental.

Landing Facilities
As to the suggestion that airships require elaborate landing facilities, Lord Thomson pointed out that a suitable mooring mast and equipment could be put up anywhere for £50,000, and that ocean liners could not be employed without expensive harbours all over the world.

Safety First
He had hoped to start at the end of the year for India, but he now finds that spare engines will not be ready in time for shipment to the overseas base. He explained that the whole policy of the airship programme was safety first, and as long as he was in charge no pressure would be put on the technical staff to undertake any flight until they were ready and satisfied that all was in order.

The technical report on yesterday's flight was entirely satisfactory.—British Wireless Service.

"QUITE SPEECHLESS"

SHIP'S ENGINEER WHO DID NOT REMEMBER

DRUNK AND INCAPABLE

T. Gibbons, a ship's engineer, was this morning charged before Mr. A. W. G. H. Grantham, of the Central Magistracy, with having been drunk and incapable in a lane off Chater-road last night. Defendant said that he did not remember anything. "Inspector J. Murphy said that when brought to the station Gibbons was so drunk that he was speechless. After the Magistrate had convicted, the Inspector proved a previous conviction in the Kowloon Court, when defendant was fined $15 for smashing a ricksha. His Worship imposed a fine of $5.
